Puteaux to Host the UCI Artistic Cycling World Cup !

On Saturday, August 23, 2025, the city of Puteaux will host — for the very first time — a round of the UCI Artistic Cycling World Cup, a spectacular discipline still under the radar in France but internationally recognized.

Organized by CSM Puteaux Cycling, this third round will be decisive in qualifying athletes for the Grand Finale, scheduled in Germany this November.

Nearly 80 international athletes are expected at the Hall des Sports in Puteaux, from countries with a strong tradition in this sport: Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Hong Kong, and Japan. They will perform solo, in pairs, or as teams of four (ACT4), showcasing a unique blend of technical precision, athletic balance, and artistic expression.

Among them, several athletes from CSM Puteaux Cycling will represent France — including Valentine Rieb, current French Champion and organizer of the event.

“It’s a great honor to host a World Cup round in Puteaux. It shows that France is beginning to make its mark in this demanding discipline,” says Valentine Rieb.

Entry is free and open to all throughout the day. The club will provide a refreshment stand and a small food service area.

Still little known in France, artistic cycling deserves to be discovered: a spectacular and demanding sport, governed by precise rules, combining physical mastery with the aesthetics of movement.
